

NEWS SUMMARY.

City Affairs. -Rev. Isaac T. Hartley, pastor-elect of the Second Reformed Church, Sunday street, and Bro. Brown, will preach his first sermon, since his election, to-morrow morning. -About half-past 10 o'clock yesterday morning Michael Sallency, 44 years of age, residing at the corner of Juniper and Filawater streets, attempted to commit suicide by cutting his throat with a razor. He was removed to the Almshouse. -Mr. Jacob Brunner, who kept a shoe store at No. 303 Spruce street, fell dead about six o'clock last evening in his store. His death is supposed to have been caused by heart disease. -Joseph Thompson, 30 years of age, was run over by an ash cart at Twenty-first and Walnut streets yesterday afternoon, and seriously injured. He was removed to the Pennsylvania Hospital. Domestic Affairs. -Gold closed yesterday at 124 1/2. -No less than four fatal accidents are reported from Scranton. -The release of the Spanish gunboats has been demanded by the contractor. -George Melody, tried at New Haven, Conn., on the charge of murder, has been acquitted. -Great activity prevails in the Brooklyn Navy Yard, where several vessels are being prepared for sea. -James L. Collins, a negro, was convicted at Baltimore, yesterday, of the murder of another negro. -The earnings of the Union Pacific Railroad for twenty-one days in November amounted to $516,446 33. -A verdict was rendered for the Government at New Orleans yesterday in the first of the sugar fraud cases. -Ex-Governor Ward, of New Jersey, is in Washington, prosecuting gratuitously claims of soldiers and sailors against the Government. -The Negro-Prentiss Indians, of Idaho, have consented to go on their reservation, but complain that it is too small, and with reason, the Superintendent says. -Mr. Magee, a Democrat, was expelled from the Alabama Assembly yesterday, on the ground that during the war he was a county commissioner. The expulsion of other Democrats is expected. -A suit brought by Outley, Haskell & Co. and T. M. Walker, of Pennsylvania, against the Terre Haute and Alton Railroad Company, involving the possession of coal mines valued at $200,000, was decided in favor of the plaintiffs at Belleville, Ill., yesterday. Foreign Affairs. -A disturbance has occurred in Ally. France. Troops have been despatched to suppress it. -A Fenian candidate will probably be nominated for the British Parliament from Mallow. -A just and reasonable demand for the repeal of the bill is demanded of the English ministry by the London Times. -It is reported in Dublin that the English Government purposes sending large military reinforcements over to Ireland. -Napoleon, in giving instructions for his speech on the opening of the Chambers, is said to have desired in it the widest and most absolute affirmation of liberty. -Rochefer is pronounced by the London Times a gambler, but that journal does not consider his election a proof that France is ready for a Gambin Government.
